

Anderson Education is a leading UK boarding school specialist and education consultant.

We have a wealth of experience and up to date knowledge of UK boarding schools; we have visited over 350 schools and can answer your questions and help you through the process.

Our service is unique, personal and free to Forces and FCO families.

We offer:

- Personal family consultation to discuss your child, their academic level, strengths and interests.
- List of recommended schools for consideration with information from each school.
- Help to shortlist and answer your questions.
- Arrange a visit itinerary to schools in the UK.
- Support through the process of registration and entrance tests until you have secured a place.

What schools have to offer:

- Special education packages for Forces and FCO families.
- Scholarships and bursaries.
- Girls, boys, co-educational.
- State boarding schools.
- Sporting academies.
- Excellence in music and performing arts.
- Range of sixth form qualifications – A Level, IB, Btec.

Benefits of a UK boarding education:

- Stability of education for mobile families.
- Progression to universities and colleges worldwide.
- Make friends for life.
- Traditional values.
- Builds confidence and independence.
- Excellent facilities for sport, music, art, drama and languages.
- Stunning locations across the UK.
- Small classes and individual attention.

